Jerry Lee Brown, (84) Former Kendrick Mayor and City Councilman passed away on July 25th, 2019 in Lewiston, Idaho. Jerry was born and lived his entire life in Kendrick and was the son of Emulus Roy and Bessie Brown.

His siblings were Georgia "Rosebud" Brown Rukgaber, Evelyn Brown Bortner Beckwith, Clarence Brown, Thomas Brown, and E June Brown Snyder. Still living are Evelyn (who lives in Florida) and Tom (who lives in Spokane).

Jerry graduated from Kendrick High School as part of the class of 1953. He played the trumpet, enjoyed music, boating, motorcycling, and loved his movies with his home theatre system. He was also a Ham (amateur) radio enthusiast.

He worked for the Kendrick Telephone Company and then later went on to be the manager of the Troy Telephone Company in Troy, Idaho.

Jerry operated the town theatre in the 1950s which he donated one of the movie projectors to the town museum in 2017. He was active with the Kendrick-Juliaetta Lions Club and Boy Scouts of America.

Jerry was mayor of Kendrick for several terms, most notably during the city's Centennial Celebration in 1990. He served on the City Council for many years. During his mayoral and councilman years, he assisted in maintaining the city pool and gave leadership in facilitating the funding for new sidewalks and street lights,

An interesting historical note about the Brown family is that Jerry's father (Emulus) and grandparents (John F. and Martha Brown) moved to Kendrick in 1890 when the town was first incorporated. John F. Brown was also the mayor of Kendrick from 1911 - 1915.

Jerry was a kind, friendly, and loving gentleman to every person he came in contact with. He will be greatly missed by family and friends.
